

GUIDELINES FOR ENJOYING YOUR VISIT TO THE OLYMPIC PENINSULA

Welcome, Guests! We've been so looking forward to your return. Rest assured that our local businesses have been preparing thoughtful and thorough actions to welcome you safely and comfortably. The health and safety of our local residents, as well as our visitors, is our highest priority. Working together, we can continue to achieve that goal by having shared expectations. We're asking everyone to do their part to help make our reopening successful and sustainable. That takes planning, education and communication. Below are our three Ps to help you have a safe and enjoyable visit. On the back, you'll find additional local and state resources. If you are sick, please stay home. We'll be here when you are well and ready to travel.

3Ps FOR A SAFE & ENJOYABLE VISIT

PLAN

- ◆ Check OlympicPeninsula.org for updates before your trip.
- ◆ Familiarize yourself with current state, county, and local rules, and current regulations. (See other side for resources.)
- ◆ Make reservations for lodging and dining in advance.
- ◆ Plan your visit—and have a Plan B, in case your destination is crowded or closed.
- ◆ Subscribe to our monthly e-newsletter by visiting OlympicPeninsula.org to receive updates and information.

PACK

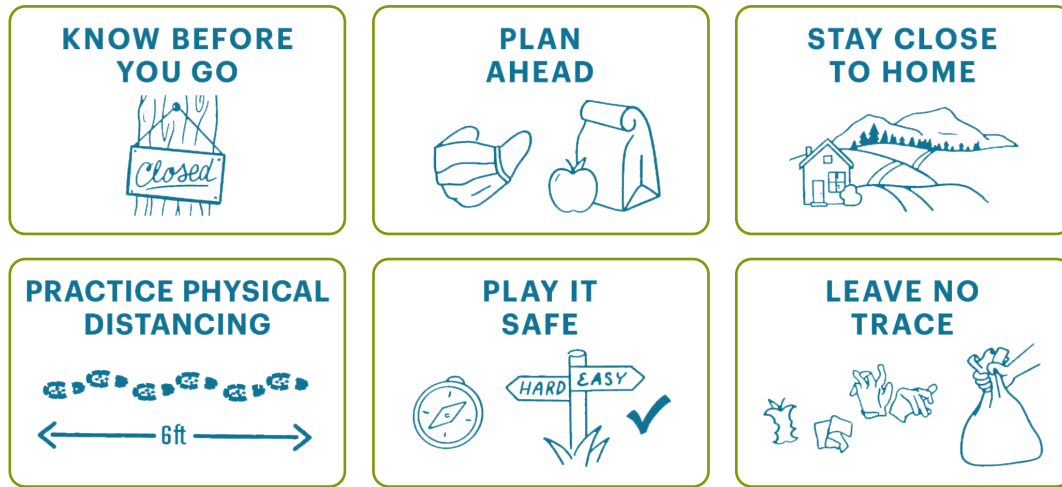

- ◆ Cloth face coverings for all in your party
- ◆ Hand sanitizer
- ◆ Disinfectant wipes
- ◆ Leave No Trace: pack it in / pack it out

PREPARE

- ◆ Practice social distancing guidelines—stay 6 feet apart
- ◆ Wash your hands frequently for at least 20 seconds
- ◆ Wear a face mask in public places
- ◆ Conduct non-cash transactions, using credit or debit card
- ◆ Adjust to limits in number of people in a space
- ◆ Expect possible personal temperature checks
- ◆ Public restrooms may be closed or limited; bring your own supplies

GUIDELINES

The Olympic Peninsula is an outdoor recreation mecca and offers visitors a wide range of open spaces, inviting trails, rugged beaches and charming towns. We encourage our residents and our visitors to #RecreateResponsibly under these guidelines:
